The oral communications will last for 15 minutes and may be accompanied by digital presentations (in .ppt files); participants are invited to deliver those to the secretariat of the conference on time. Limitations of the length of time are due to the many proposals submitted and accepted for the conference.

The sessions for oral presentations will take place in the main hall of the Cultural Center, the Ritsos Hall.

The wall poster presentations will be in an adjacent room, the Roidis hall, throughout the duration of the conference and will be presented by the signatories on Friday afternoon, in a special session. These should be sent within the specified time according to instructions which are attached on a separate file for their production by the Society before the conference.

The conference will end with a round table discussion of the results on Sunday noon.

Two receptions will be offered by the conference, one on Wednesday afternoon in the courtyard of the Apollo Theatre, and another one on Saturday afternoon in the lobby of the Cultural Center.

Parallel events of the conference will be held, such as:

- the Find of the Month to be presented at the Archaeological Museum of Syros, located next to the Town Hall, to the delegates by the staff of the Ephorate for Antiquities of the Cyclades, on Wednesday noon.
- musical show with island songs and dances organized by the Lyceum Club of Greek Women, Annex Syros, on Wednesday night at the Apollo Theater, after the keynote lecture.
- Painting Exhibition by George Xenos, at the Art Gallery of the Cyclades, in the building of the Customs Warehouse; the inauguration of this will take place on Tuesday, May 24, 2016 at 7.30. Presentation for the participants is scheduled for Thursday evening after the end of meetings.
- Projection of a documentary about Syros by the director Mr. G. Dampasis on Saturday evening in Ritsou Hall, after the end of the meetings and before the reception.
